Eligibility.

For the President.

"Citizens are in general eligible to office;

the exceptions arise from the want of those qualifications which the constitution requires." (Bouv. L. D. p. 463.) "A citizen of the United States residing in any state

in the Union, is a citizen of that state."

(S. p. 231) "The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states."

(Const. U. S. Sec. II. Art. IV.) "Political rights consist in the faculty of participating directly either in the exercise of the establishment of the public power, or the public functions. These rights are fixed by the constitution." (B. I. A. L. vol. 1.)

On the authority of this law, we venture

the assertion that all citizens, not deprived of their political rights, are eligible to any office in a state, if they are not disqualified on account of some constitutional prohibition. It does not necessarily follow that a person is eligible to every office, because he is an elector; nor because he is not an elector, that he is ineligible to all offices. There is a vast difference between being an elector and being eligible to office. A naturalized citizen may be an elector of president of the United States, although he could not constitutionally be elected to that office.

The general disqualifications to eligibility to office of citizens of this state, are embraced in two sections of the constitution. Sec. 2, Art. XIII. "Any inhabitant of this State who hereafter be engaged either directly or indirectly, in a duel, either as principal or accessory, shall forever be disqualified as an elector, and from holding any office under the constitution and laws of this State, and may be punished

in such other manner as shall be prescribed

by law."

Sec. 3. "No member of Congress, nor any person holding any office of profit or trust under the U. S. (postmaster excepted) or under any foreign power; no person convinced of any infamous crime in any court under the U. S. and no person being a defaulter to the U. S. or to this state, or to any county or town therein, or to any state or territory within the U. S. shall be eligible to any office of trust, profit or honor in this state." But the constitution points out certain prerequisites as essential to the holding of certain offices; as of the chief executive of this state, concerning whom it declares, "No person, except a citizen of the United States, and a qualified elector of the state, shall be eligible to the office of governor or lieutenant governor."

Or as legislators: "No person shall be eligible to the legislature who shall not have resided one year in the state and be a qualified elector in the district which he may be chosen to represent." Or as of judges: "No person shall be eligible to the office of judge who shall not, at the time of his election, be a citizen of the U. S. and have attained the age of twenty-five years,

and be a qualified elector within the juris-isdiction for which he may be chosen to represent."

But there are offices which, from their nature are incompatible with each other. The constitution says: "Shall hold no other office, and be ineligible for two years

next succeeding the termination of their office." Also of judges, "They shall hold no office of public trust, except a judicial office, during the term for which they are respectively elected."

The afternoon services of the Baptist church will be held hereafter at 2 o'clock.

Episcopal services at the Court House tomorrow at 10 1/2 and 2, by Rev. Palmer.

Apples promise to be cheap here this fall. They are now being sold from the stemmers at $2.25 per bush.

Ask Robinson about those counterfeit Treasury Notes! It is said he has seen the original.

We thought we had secured a regular correspondent in the 21st regiment, but as yet he has failed to write. Let's hear from you!

ANSON BALLARD was re-elected Clerk of District No. 2, at the school meeting on Monday evening. He has served in that capacity for six years.

A DISGRACEFUL MEELE took place on Thursday at the Saloon of Charles Fisher. How it began we do not know, but as usual whisky was the primary cause.

As will be seen by advertisement, John H. Hart is now sole proprietor of the "Union-Market." He will sell cheaper than ever.

REMEMBER the Caucuses to night. Let every democrat, who has any respect for his principles and who wants a strong ticket nominated, be present.

OUR CORRESPONDENT in the 31 Cavalry says they have taken no more prisoners—that is "played out." The federals are better armed and clothed—the rebels better fed.

SUTLER TO THE 21ST.—By an oversight, we heretofore neglected to notice that John P. Johnston, of this city, was appointed Suter of the 21st reg't. A good and substantial selection.

NO STAMPS YET.—Up to the present writing, no government legal stamps have yet been received in town. So that business men will have to get along without them for the present at least.

Why is it that the Appleton package of the Milwaukee News comes generally in the evening instead of the morning? We want the best papers as soon as possible. Can the evil be remedied?

OUR FORMER EDITOR, S. Ryan, Jr., speaks to the Democracy in our to-day's issue. The excitement of war, together with a severe attack of sickness, does not seem to impair his former ready abilities.

GAME.—While at Little Chute on Monday, we were informed that deer were very numerous in that vicinity. One farmer said they had destroyed nearly his entire orchard of young trees.

We take great pleasure in announcing to the civilized Democrats of this county, that Stephen Balliet of Dubuque, will be a candidate for Governor. His nomination will be hailed with most enthusiastic applause.

THE POST OFFICE has been removed to Strong's block, opposite Old Fellows Hall. We hope our P. M. will not change his location again until the Railroad is completed, because the roads leading to Little Chute are almost bottomless!

A MISTAKE.—In our hurry last week we made an unintentional error in the number of delegates the Third Ward is entitled to. Instead of 2, the ward is entitled to 3. The correction will be observed in to-day's issue.

BEARISH.—Mr. Steffen of the town of Osborn killed a large bear in that town on Saturday last. We understand that he weighed some 400 lbs. Quite a number of these hugging varmints have been seen roaming around, lately.

HOME MANUFACTURE.—Mr. Hutchinson had some excellent specimens of cloth, flannels, and yarns on exhibition at the Fair, which elicited universal admiration. Farmers should do their best to branch out heavily into wool growing. There is more cash in it than in their wheat.

OPPOSITION.—We stated last week, that Mr. Tibbitts had no opposition to him for the Deputy Assessorship. Mr. T. informs us that there were three or four other applicants for the position, and all worked hard for it. We thought it strange that the Republicans could allow such a fat lot of face to have but one hungry one after it.

CLEAR UP.—The occupants and owners of property on each side of College Avenue, on the business blocks should at once clean up the street in front of their premises. It is horrible bad in some places, and there should be sufficient fire among our business men there to keep the street passable. If it is not done, soon, a certain ordinance we wot of may be brought to bear.

Why is it?—There are families of our volunteers in town who have not received a cent of the $5 a month pay from the State, for over five months, and many of them needing every cent of it. There is fault somewhere, and that fault pay should be secured for these families. Winter is almost upon them and their expenses must necessarily increase. They must not be allowed to suffer in a christian community. Some man should be appointed, either by the citizens or by the city council, (and pay him if necessary) to act as an agent for these volunteer families, to whom these families may look to with confidence, feeling that they have a right to let him know of their wants freely. He could transact all business necessary for them, either to the State or city. Will not the city Board appoint some one to do this work?

For Clerk of the Court, John W. Carhart, Jr.

RETURNED.—Major Pomeroy, of the First Wis. Cavalry returned home to this city on Wednesday last to recuperate his shattered health. He is a perfect shadow, having been prostrated with those nasty Arkansas fever, which together with overwork has proved too much for his constitution. We hope the healthful air of Appleton, and the tender care of kind friends may soon again restore him to health.

BROWN OCTOBER is upon us. But poverty has been all washed away by the terrible and continuous rains of the past few days. At any rate the leaves on the forests seem to be turning yellow, and we expect they'll leave in a few days, unless nature's stronger than death. We suppose the rains will go over to the seacoast before many weeks—probably on account of the President's Parkmanism. There is a mean bird and ought to be incarcerated!

GRAND Pic Nic.—There will be a grand picnic for the benefit of the Appleton Catholic Church, on Monday next. Hon. T. R. Hurl, of this city, Hon. J. C. N. Vill of Oshkosh, Hon. W. Packard of Neenah, and other distinguished speakers have been invited to be present. Refreshments in abundance and variety have been provided. Let all go to this social and mental feast. Procession will form at the Church at 11 o'clock A. M., and march to the beautiful grove of John D. Pierce in the 3d ward.

THAT CONCERN given by Messrs. Cathbert, Milne, and the Misses Cummings, was a capital affair. The singing and instrumental music was such as we Appletonians are not favored with every day. The singers were repeatedly encouraged and their pieces received with storms of deserved applause. With careful cultivation and proper training of their voices, these girls cannot be excelled in Northern Wisconsin. There was not as large an audience present as we would like to have seen, still there was a tolerable good house.

New Goods.—Mr. Pettibone has received a tremendous stock of fall and winter goods. His store is always crowded.

Messrs. Fay & Humphrey's shelves are growing with a choice, cheap stock of sensible goods. It is the place to get a good suit of clothing, either ready made or made to order.

Mr. Adkins keeps his usual good supply fully up to demand, and has all he can do.

Uncle Peter is daily serving the ladies with good goods, and has a well selected stock in store.

Charley Mory has just received his fall stock, and is a liberal dealer.

They have come up from the farm, workshop and general active vocations of Western life, and will win glorious laurels for themselves and their God. We will keep our readers posted as to their movements. The most of the boys are now in town on a visit to friends.

WAX ROUT.—The following is the correct statistics of the exempt and those liable to do military duty in Outagamie county, between the ages of 18 and 45. We had no idea the list of the former would be so large. In gauging over the rolls we noticed many who were granted certificates on the most frivolous excuses—excuses that any man might be as ashamed of. We do wish we could give the names:

Death of Willie E. Spencer.

"Cape Girardeau, Mo., Sept. 28, 1862.

"It is with feelings of deepest regret that I inform you of Willie's death. He died at 2 o'clock a. m. of the 28th. He was placed aboard the str. Sunshine (at Helena) on the way to this place, and died in about fifteen minutes. His body was brought as far as Memphis and there buried. While at it, he was nurse in the hospital for some time. He worked in that capacity long, but being ambitious, he nursed others when he needed assistance himself. He died of a common disease here—bloody flux. Was sick but two weeks. He was a good soldier and a favorite in his last hours."

The foregoing letter was written to Mr. Eliza Spencer, and received just one year from the time of his enlistment. It contains sad tidings, not alone to bereaved parents, sisters and brothers, but to a whole community, who knew Willie well, and greatly loved him for his genuine qualities of heart and mind. He was in his twentieth year. Major Pomeroy says, "He was a good soldier and always prompt." May God's blessing alleviate this severe stroke to bereaved parents, and may He pour the oil of consolation upon their lacerated hearts.

Outagamie County Fair.

It had not been fully determined upon to hold a Fair this year, until it was too late to do so. It would be as successful as one might wish. But it was finally decided to hold a Fair, and the best we could do was to hold it now. This course has been most beneficial to the Society. It had been postponed for another year, the natural inference would be that the institution was a grand failure.

Although the general articles were not so extensive and varied as our last Fair, yet it has by no means been a failure. The continued heavy rains, continuing up to Thursday morning, prevented a larger display in departments than there would have been, but the weather being propitious, the horse and cattle show was very creditable indeed, far better than last year, also the exhibition of pigs and sheep. In the Hall, the display was of course not as large as last fall, still was very good. There was a great taking off in the display of fruit, for which there had been no good excuse, as we have in town and through the County the very best of fruit. Senator Hyde entertained the Society on Thursday afternoon, with an appropriate and excellent poem, and Mr. A. B. Jackson favored the audience with some remarks.

There is a determination among the people of Outagamie County to assist in this Society, for their endeavors to make the present occasion as interesting as possible. Our President, Mr. Brown, did his best, and our indefatigable worker, Secretary Douglas, labored hard to render it as effective and beneficial as circumstances would warrant.

Let us all do our best another year, and prepare for the Fair in advance of the time. We shall doubtless publish the list of awards soon.

To the Citizens of Appleton and Vicinity.

Having largely replenished our Stock with such goods as we are sure you will find desirable, we take this method of calling your attention to the same, and with many thanks for past favors, soliciting your continued patronage. Death of Willie E. Spencer.

"Cape Girardeau, Mo., Sept. 28, 1862.

"It is with feelings of deepest regret that I inform you of Willie's death. He died at 2 o'clock a. m. of the 28th. He was placed aboard the str. Sunshine (at Helena) on the way to this place, and died in about fifteen minutes. His body was brought as far as Memphis and there buried. While at it, he was nurse in the hospital for some time. He worked in that capacity long, but being ambitious, he nursed others when he needed assistance himself. He died of a common disease here—bloody flux. Was sick but two weeks. He was a good soldier and a favorite in his last hours."

The foregoing letter was written to Mr. Eliza Spencer, and received just one year from the time of his enlistment. It contains sad tidings, not alone to bereaved parents, sisters and brothers, but to a whole community, who knew Willie well, and greatly loved him for his genuine qualities of heart and mind. He was in his twentieth year. Major Pomeroy says, "He was a good soldier and always prompt." May God's blessing alleviate this severe stroke to bereaved parents, and may He pour the oil of consolation upon their lacerated hearts.

Outagamie County Fair.

It had not been fully determined upon to hold a Fair this year, until it was too late to do so. It would be as successful as one might wish. But it was finally decided to hold a Fair, and the best we could do was to hold it now. This course has been most beneficial to the Society. It had been postponed for another year, the natural inference would be that the institution was a grand failure.

Although the general articles were not so extensive and varied as our last Fair, yet it has by no means been a failure. The continued heavy rains, continuing up to Thursday morning, prevented a larger display in departments than there would have been, but the weather being propitious, the horse and cattle show was very creditable indeed, far better than last year, also the exhibition of pigs and sheep. In the Hall, the display was of course not as large as last fall, still was very good. There was a great taking off in the display of fruit, for which there had been no good excuse, as we have in town and through the County the very best of fruit. Senator Hyde entertained the Society on Thursday afternoon, with an appropriate and excellent poem, and Mr. A. B. Jackson favored the audience with some remarks.

Napoleon was one day searching for a book in his library, and at last discovered it on a shelf somewhat above his reach. Marching Money, one of the tallest men in the army, stepped forward, saying: "Permit me, sire! I am higher than your majesty." "You are longer, Marshal," said the Emperor with a frown.

"The sum of $50,000 was, on Friday, sent to Washington by the Prize Court of Philadelphia. The sum is the proceeds of a single sale of a prize vessel condemned and sold in that port. The whole sum will be divided among the officers and crew of a single vessel. Over 300,000 more will be sent for the same purpose during the next week.

The Prince of Wales shocks the English courtiers by his warm expressions of sympathy with us in our contest with rebellion. So says the English correspondent of the New York Times.

The yellow fever is in Wilmington, N. C., and is very malignant.

Pompeian window glass, of which panes have been discovered as large as 20 by 23 inches, has proved on examination, to have been cast in a manner similar to that now followed in making plate glass, except that it was not rolled flat, as now, by metal cylinders, but pressed out with a wooden pallet, so that its thickness is not uniform. The chemical composition of Pompeian and of modern window glass is shown to be wonderfully alike.

It is proposed to restore the parish church of St. Giles, Cripplegate, London, as a memorial to Milton, who was buried there. This church escaped the fire of London in 1666, and, with the exception of St. Bartholomew, the Great, in Smithfield, is the oldest church in the city. The proposed restoration will cost £30,000.

A span of horses attached to an ambulance in Cincinnati, and left unattended, went right and ran into a crowd on Sunday evening, killing two women, and badly injuring a third and child. The women killed were Mrs. Reese and Mrs. Dorne. Both have children, and their husbands are in the army.

Nonconformists of England reported at their recent bi-centenary that £100,000 had been raised in the denomination, to restore its chapels, and establish new agencies, and that a second sum of £100,000 would probably be realized for similar purposes. They pledge themselves to erect one hundred new chapels.

Charlotte Cushman is present at Paris, and speaks of returning to this country to resume the practice of her profession, having lost a considerable portion of her fortune in unsuccessful speculations.

S. D. Stanchfield, Esq., has purchased an interest in the Fond du Lac Democratic Press. He is an able writer and a sound democrat.

An Iowa correspondent of the Chicago Times states that not a single democrat has yet been appointed Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, or Major of the forty-two regiments raised from that State.

It is a curious coincidence, well worthy of remark, that the recent decisive battle fought by Gen. McClellan on the Antietam took place on the 17th of September—the very day on which, seventy-five years ago, the Constitution of the United States was signed and adopted.
